INTRODUCTION

WILLING'S PRESS GUIDE—now in its fifty-sixth year—is the “Concise” work of its class. It contains everything of importance and nothing that is superfluous. The arrangement of its contents is so perfect that the item of information required is obtainable in a moment. And as a volume it is easier to handle than any other Guide.

This 1929 issue is the second of the new series begun a year ago, shortly after James Willing, Ltd., hitherto the sole owners of the Guide, became absorbed in the older and greater business of Willing & Co. Ltd., known for years past as the house of “Willing Service.”

During the last twelve months we have had ample opportunity to strengthen still further those various features of the Guide which have contributed to its success in the past. Moreover, we have brought the contents strictly up-to-date and have done everything possible to meet the most exacting requirements of day-by-day users of our publication. This new Guide is a substantial improvement on the old one, excellent as that was.

The co-operation of publishers has been invaluable to us. The large majority of them have responded most readily to our request for all necessary particulars of their newspapers, magazines, or journals. A few others, however, have not done so. An asterisk (*) in the Alphabetical Index indicates that the information given against it is either old or has not been supplied authoritatively.

WILLING'S PRESS GUIDE is useful rather than voluminous, therefore a certain amount of exclusion has been thought advisable. Localized editions of newspapers serving a number of small towns have been omitted. So also have many parish magazines. And as the inclusion of a number of strictly American magazines that are quite outside the interest of British advertisers would serve no useful purpose, we have left them out. But our endeavour is that everything which ought to have a place in a British Guide to the Press of the World intended for use in virtually any emergency shall be found in WILLING'S.

It would, however, be impossible for us to maintain the traditions of the Guide and to make it of still greater service to the business of advertising if we did not receive the constant assistance of newspaper, magazine, weekly journal, and trade paper proprietors, to whose benefit it is that such a publication be accurate and fully informative. It will be helpful if we be given notice as soon as possible of any change in title, day of issue, price, subscription rates, address, or telephone number. Such matter should be sent to "The Editor," who will insert it in the next edition.

Moreover, we shall be grateful for suggestions calculated to improve the scope and usefulness of the Guide, for we are fully alive to the fact that those who refer to it have the best knowledge of their own requirements.

The arrangement of this volume is so simple that users have no difficulty whatever in finding the information they seek. That is a matter of seconds—a most important consideration to the busy man. The straight alphabetical list of all publications is of exceptional value. Very few directions and explanations are necessary.

WILLING'S PRESS GUIDE for 1929 is better than any of its predecessors and will, we are confident, be more than ever before the most widely used of all publications of its kind.

THE ARCHITECTS' JOURNAL

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR THE PROFESSION

Edited by CHRISTIAN BARMAN.

The "Journal" supplies the information and news relative to the Architectural profession, and deals with the thousand details of an architectural practice. It illustrates the finest work in current architecture of Great Britain and of other countries. It is an inspiration to the artist and a source of practical knowledge to the professional man. Weekly, 6d.

THE ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW

A Monthly Magazine of Architecture and the Allied Arts

The subscribers to the "Review" include not only those who take a professional interest in matters relating to Architecture and the Allied Arts, but also members of the lay public, both at home and abroad. There is no country in the civilised world to which the "Review" does not travel month by month. The "Craftsman's Portfolio" is a monthly supplement given with the "Review," in which the finest examples of modern Craftwork are illustrated.

Monthly, 2/6.

"The principal sources of information on modern architecture," says the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA, "are the best architectural periodicals of the various countries." The names of four American, three continental, and two English periodicals follow. The two English papers mentioned are THE ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW and THE ARCHITECTS' JOURNAL.

SPECIFICATION

The Standard Technical Reference Work for Architects, Surveyors and Engineers, and for all interested in Building Construction and Structural Engineering.

THE Kent & Sussex Courier

as an advertising medium offers a definite circulation value, based on Auditors' Net Sales Certificates, that can be measured in terms of both quantity and quality. Circulating as it does from the environs of London to the South Coast, it effectively covers influential and important residential districts and a rich and prosperous agricultural area in both counties.

The importance of the Courier as a "close-range" support in National advertising campaigns is emphasised by the testimony of leading advertising experts who use its columns regularly and consistently.

NOTES TO REFERENCES.

- (1) Copies are in the British Museum.
- (2) 1690 is the date often given. The first volume is in the British Museum, Nos. 1 to 3 being too much mutilated for the date to be correctly ascertained, but the fourth number is for Friday, March 10, to Monday, March 13, 1699 (N.S. 1700).
- (3) The date commonly given is 1711, but as many copies of an earlier date are in the British Museum, it is assumed from No. 339, for July, 1708, that publication commenced in 1705.
- (4) Green's History of Worcester (1796) states that it is conjectured a public paper was established in Worcester about 1690.
- (5) For the first eighteen years the numbers were divided into half-yearly volumes. Perhaps the earliest copy in existence is for Jan. 6, 1715-6, vol. vii. One for Nov. 7, 1717, vol. x., was exhibited at the Caxton Celebration, and the earliest copy in the British Museum is vol. xi., No. 21, for Thurs., May 22, 1718—twelve quarto pages, 8½ inches by 6. A number for 1719, vol. xiv., is said to be in the Museum of the Philosophical Society of Leicester; one is spoken of for 1723, vol. xxi.; and the British Museum contains vols. xxxi. and xxxii., for 1728, now an octavo of eight pages, 9 inches by 5½. The date of establishment of the present paper is probably 1731, as a copy of the Lincoln, Rutland, and Stamford Mercury, for Jan. 9, 1789, says "This paper for upwards of fifty-seven years has been and continues to be circulated every Friday morning," &c., proving that the Stamford Mercury was not looked upon as the original of the present paper.
- (6) The date is assumed from an obituary notice of Mr. Wm. Chase in the paper for June 2, 1744, wherein he is said to have "printed the Norwich Mercury for about 30 years." The proprietors on Jan. 26, 1884, issued a facsimile of the paper of Jan 21-8, 1727, and they have in their possession "an odd copy or two for 1721."
- (7) No. 530 is dated March 22, 1722 (published twice a week), and No. 1 of the Kentish Gazette is dated April 30 to May 4, 1768. On the following 23rd of July the Kentish Post was incorporated, and the paper appeared as the Kentish Gazette and Canterbury Chronicle, beginning again as No. 1.
- (8) Vol. ii., 1719-20, was in the Caxton Exhibition. The paper was discontinued from 1755 to 1757, a new numbering then being adopted.
- (9) The first number was published on May 2, 1720. A copy of the first volume is in the Northampton Free Reference Library.
- (10) 1720 has been given. No. 255 is dated Feb. 21, 1727.
- (11) A copy of the first number, for July 8, 1723, is in the Bodleian Library, and of this a facsimile was issued as a supplement to the paper on July 8, 1882.
- (12) The York Courant was incorporated with the York Herald, which started on Jan. 2, 1790.

RECENT TITULAR CHANGES AND AMALGAMATIONS

*The following list deals only with publications which have changed their titles or have been amalgamated with other publications during the past ten years. The date of issue or of change, where ascertained, follows the title; a second title printed in italic indicates that the list must be again entered with that title until the new-found one is printed in Roman character, when, if further information is required, reference should be made to the publication in the Alphabetical List, page 1. When a publication has received a new title, the contraction bec. signifies "became"; and when a title has been incorporated, the contraction inc. stands for "incorporated with," "amalgamated with" or "merged into."*

Let experience plan your POSTER CAMPAIGNS

The result of more than sixty years' activities on behalf of a considerable number of advertisers is the soundest testimony to the value of the service we render.

In outdoor advertising the wisdom of long experience alone gives that mature judgment which ensures effective use of space.

Careful selection of positions is essential if the full results from any poster directed toward any particular section of the public are to be obtained.

Counsel upon this and numerous other factors affecting result-producing outdoor advertising is part of our every-day service.

On the administrative side our permanent staff of specially trained inspectors, functioning as clients' representatives, are ever alert to see that no mechanical inefficiency hinders the progress of a campaign. This inspection service covers all the routine of checking positions, condition of posters, arranging transfers where necessary and reporting at regular intervals to the client so that he may judge as to what changes or renewals are needed.

There is no charge for estimates or advice.

VALUE for the ADVERTISER

VALUE for the Advertiser is the Keynote of all the issues of THE DRAPERS' RECORD. For the Advertiser in the THE DRAPERS' RECORD there is no element of speculation to combat, no need to rely on any meretricious form of attraction.

THE DRAPERS' RECORD delivers the goods—its circulation is not a matter of guess-work, of vague evasion or prevarication. It is a Fact, and everybody knows it.

We invite every Firm appealing to the Textile Trades to take advantage of its pages, which in their editorial and illustrated features appeal to the keen interest of every buyer in the Country. Big and little, the "Record" reaches them all, with exceptions so small as to be negligible. This is simple truth—of great importance to the Advertiser who is "out" for results.

Announcements that are not seen are valueless as advertising—no matter how attractive they may be intrinsically. This point cannot be too strongly insisted upon; waste of money cannot be condoned by any business man. It is the height of folly to plan and produce advertising that is not seen. There can be no fear of it in "Record" advertising, the best, the soundest, and the most economical ever offered to the British Advertiser of textiles, fancy goods—of any article that should be stocked and sold by the modern drapery store.

THE Drapers' Record

has the largest circulation of any Trade Paper in the World.

SALISBURY IS THE PIVOT—

geographically, commercially and historically,
of a prosperous residential and agricultural district with a population of 70,000 people.
To effectively reach this large number of potential customers it is essential that your announcements appear in

THE SALISBURY TIMES

WILTON TIMES & SOUTH WILTS GAZETTE

which is the best medium for reaching not only the civilian inhabitants of the district but also those residing at the numerous military stations and R.A.F. aerodromes on Salisbury Plain.

Salisbury is the capital of the county of Wiltshire, the marketing centre for everybody living within a radius of twenty miles, and the home of

THE SALISBURY TIMES

which goes into every town, every village and every part of the area it covers.

The Somerset County Gazette (Taunton).

Series includes

The Bridgwater Mercury (Bridgwater)
and

The Devon and Somerset News
(Tiverton and Wellington).

Established 93 years ago, it covers the whole district between Bristol and Exeter and has therein a far larger circulation than any other series of papers. The circulation of each paper is certified by Incorporated Accountants and copies of these certificates may be had on application. There can be no better guarantee of genuine circulation.

A comparison of its advertisements (especially of the "Situations Wanted" class) with those in any other paper will show conclusively that it has no equal as an advertising medium within the above district.
